RECEIVE PENNSYLVANIA ACT 48
PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION CREDIT!

IUP is approved by the Pennsylvania Department of Education as a provider of continuing professional education courses/activities. At the end of the conference, you will receive a letter that verifies your participation in 6 hours of continuing professional education activity. See registration form and our website (www.iupmethodologyconference.com) for important details regarding how to obtain these 6 hours. For weekly updates, please “LIKE” us on Facebook (IUP Methodology Conference on Foreign Language Teaching) and follow us on Twitter.

To Apply For Act 48 Credit: Please go to our website and download, print, and fill in the requested information on the REGISTRATION FORM and the ACT 48 FORM. Then return BOTH FORMS to the address indicated.

Important Note: Conference presenters and attendees who wish to earn 6 hours of Pennsylvania Act 48 continuing professional education credit must sign in at the beginning of the conference and, also, sign out at the end of the conference. According to guidelines provided by the PA Department of Education, teachers who request 6 Act 48 hours but do not formally sign out at the end of the day will NOT be granted these 6 hours. We cannot permit a friend to sign out for another teacher. In order to maintain our approval to grant credits for conference attendance, we must adhere to PA Dept. of Education guidelines.

For information on lodging, please consult our conference website!

IUP is an equal opportunity/affirmative action institution. Please direct inquiries concerning equal opportunity to Social Equity Office, IUP. IUP is a member of the State System of Higher Education.

SESSION SERIES #1: 10:30 – 11:30 a.m.

Parma: “Putting Genre to Work in the World Language Classrooms”

This workshop will further explore the teaching and assessment of a spoken genre. Using the Can-Do Statements and genre theory, participants will identify and begin to plan instruction that makes visible how a particular spoken interaction is organized, how students can appropriately engage in that interaction, and how to support students in learning to communicate in that particular communicative situation.

Dr. Francis John Troyan, The Ohio State University

London: “Create a Learning Journey with Nearpod”

Nearpod helps provide more engaging learning experiences, prompts student-driven learning, and enables teachers to provide diverse resources for students. Discover how to create immersive, interactive learning journeys with Nearpod. Explore resources for creating engaging lessons that expand the boundaries of your classroom, all with one multi-purpose tool. Walk away with lessons to use tomorrow!

Rachelle Dene Poth, Riverview High School

Victorian: “Be the Learner During a TPRS Demonstration and Monitor What Facilitates Your Language Acquisition”

You may have taught using TPR Storytelling, but have you ever stopped to analyze the learners’ experiences? Come put yourselves in the learners’ shoes by participating in a novice-level storytelling either in Japanese or Latin. Share your thoughts about your experience with your colleagues.

Dr. Junko Yamamoto, Slippery Rock University

Crystal: “PACE and Processing Instruction: Exploring two unique ways to incorporate grammar in the classroom”

Would you like to have several valid, studied models for the introduction of grammar in your classroom? In this session, you will learn about PACE and Processing Instruction models, understand how their approaches differ, and have an opportunity to view and interact with lessons created using both approaches.

Dr. Jason Killam, Indiana University of Pennsylvania

Mr. Jesse Carnevali, Franklin Regional High School

BUFFET LUNCH: 11:45 - 12:45 p.m.

Chestnut Gardens Pavilion

(weather permitting)

SESSION SERIES #2: 1:00-2:00 p.m.

Parma: “Don’t Take It Out of Context!: Leveraging Foreign Language Teaching Practices”

The phrase, “You took what I said out of context!” illustrates the pivotal nature of context in communication. This session will examine the high-leverage practice of establishing a meaningful and purposeful context as a first step in backward-design instructional planning. Participants will deconstruct the steps involved in this critical practice.

Dr. Eileen Glisan,

Emerita, Indiana University of Pennsylvania

London: “Go Rogue: Creating Chaos to Re-energize Your Classroom!”

Finding ways to reach all students and effectively implement new strategies and digital tools into the classroom can be overwhelming. It is time to take some risks! Discover ideas for creating a flexible, student-driven learning environment, where students build confidence, relationships, and collaborate in a learning adventure.

Rachelle Dene Poth, Riverview High School

Victorian: “Incorporating Discourse Markers in the FL Classroom: A Way to Enrich FL Students’ Discourse”

Discourse makers such as “bueno” and “me explico” provide two types of information: the speaker’s attitudinal comments and connectivity between utterances. Join us and learn how to help students become pragmatic and competent members and enrich their discourse in the foreign language classroom using pragmatic discourse markers.

Dr. Marjorie Zambrano-Paff,

Indiana University of Pennsylvania

Crystal: “Developing the ‘Fifth Skill’: Teaching Translation to Connect Language and Cultural Study”

This workshop puts translation-related projects using authentic texts at the heart of language learning in the communicative classroom to spark intellectual curiosity and a sense of purpose in language learning, and to integrate language and cultural study. Emphasis on intermediate/advanced levels, but with examples for elementary levels, as well.

Dr. Lynn E. Palermo, Susquehanna University

Parma: “Gamifying the IPA with Digital Games and Simulations”

Experience gamification websites with embedded, authentic artifacts for interpretive activities. Discover and reflect on digital games and simulations around a variety of topics (including social justice issues). Participate in scavenger hunts that promote critical thinking and interpersonal speaking skills. Design your own digital games for presentational tasks. Bring your own technology (BYOT)!

Dr. Silvina Orsatti, University of Pittsburgh at Greensburg
Mrs. Jennifer Bennett Brown, Sewickley Academy

London: “Pop Culture in the Foreign Language Classroom”

Interested in developing new ways of engaging your students in learning culture? Using concrete examples from my own teaching and demonstrating how I made it all come together in a cohesive whole, we will review the use of pop culture, what elements to use, and you will create your own teaching unit.

Dr. Vicente Gomis-Izquierdo,
Indiana University of Pennsylvania

Victorian: “Writing Across the Curriculum and Proficiency-Based Writing: Making the Connection”

The Writing Across the Curriculum (WAC) movement focuses on the incorporation of writing in all disciplines, throughout instruction, rather than as a separate skill or process. This session will bring the discussion into the world language classroom and provide participants with a new perspective on the role of writing.

Dr. Christina Huhn, Indiana University of Pennsylvania

Crystal: “The UbD Curriculum Framework: Backward Design for Forward-moving Language Proficiency Outcomes”

The UbD model (Understanding by Design) has been embraced by the Pennsylvania Department of Education. However, most documentation about UbD tends to ignore Foreign Language teachers and their unique concerns. After exploring examples of backward design and UbD as it relates to Foreign Language Education, participants will brainstorm cross-curricular projects to utilize in their schools and beyond.

Dr. Maggie Broderick, Northcentral University
